

The district of Vorpommern-Rügen

Vorpommern-Rügen is the fifth-largest district in the Federal Republic of Germany and bigger than the country of Luxembourg. 225,000 inhabitants live here.

The high quality of life has been predominantly defined by an increasingly rising level of employment. Furthermore the region is characterized by its excellent living conditions, possibilities of leisure activities and family-friendliness.

The island of Rügen with its famous chalk cliffs and the peninsula of Fischland-Darß-Zingst with its endless sandy beaches are part of the district of Vorpommern-Rügen. Moreover, the UNESCO World Heritage and Hanseatic town of Stralsund is as inviting as the hinterland with its idyllic castles, villages and small towns.
